

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, October, 3. 1702.

From the Amsterdam Courant, Dated Oct. 7.

Vienna, September 23.

TWO Days ago Te Deum was sung with great Solemnity in the Cathedral of this City, and other usual Expressions of Joy shewn, for the taking of Landau. And Yesterday came Advice that the Diet of the Empire had resolv'd to declare War against France; which occasions no less Joy. 'Tis given out here that the King of the Romans will leave a considerable number of men to garrison Landau and repair the Fortifications of that Place; that he will send 15000 to reinforce the Army under Prince Eugene in Italy; and yet will have a sufficient Strength to observe the Motions of Marshal Catinat. The Malecontents in the Kingdom of Naples increase still, and want only a Body of Imperial Troops to be sent among them to encourage them to declare openly for the House of Austria.

From the Leiden Gazette, Dated Octob. 5.

Warsaw, Sept. 18. The King is lately return'd hither, and all the Saxon Troops as well Horse as Foot are in the Neighbourhood of this City. On the 22d there will be a great Council held, to consult of proper Measures to oblige the King of Sweden to retire with his Army out of this Kingdom; the Cardinal Primate arriv'd on the 15th to assist in this Council, and the day after had a long Audience of the King in his Closet. Count Zinzendorf Envoy Extraordinary from the Emperor is also lately come hither, and has had Audience of the King, in which he offer'd the Mediation of his Imperial Majesty, having done the like to the King of Sweden at Cracow. The Republick interpose for Peace likewise, and 'tis said that the Deputys of the Nobility who are to go to propose Terms of Accommodation to the King of Sweden, will come hither to receive their Instructions. The Deputys are these, Morsteyn Waywood of Marienburg, Krowsky Cupbearer to the King, Leszinky Starost of Ostrezeskon, and Cromonowsky Chief Butler of Lithuania. 'Tis pretended that both Kings are inclin'd to a Treaty, but that it will be difficult to prevail with the King of Sweden to include the Czar of Muscovy in it, which the King of Poland absolutely insists on. 'Tis computed that the King of Sweden has not less than 30000 men, since the Arrival of the Troops from Pomerania.

They write from Holstein that the Dutcheß Regent will come to Sleswyck next Spring, but that the young Prince will continue at Stockholm; with which the Inhabitants of that Dutchy are very much dissatisfy'd: And the Court of Sweden is as little pleas'd with the Intrigues that are carrying on to put the Administration of Holstein into the hands of Prince Christian Augustus Brother to the late Duke.

From the Hague Gazette, Dated Octob. 5.

Brussels, Octob. 1. An Order is publish'd in these Provinces, enjoyning all the Inhabitants from 16 to 60 Years of Age to provide themselves with Arms, and Powder for 6 Charges at least, and to stop all Persons that travel without an Attestation of the Place of their abode, and carry them to the next Goal; and if any of the King's natural born Subjects are taken in Arms for the Enemy, they are to be hang'd up immediately. For preventing Disorders, his Majesty's Soldiers are commanded not to travel more than two together, and always on the High Road, on pain of Death. The Innkeepers who live out of the Road are to pay a Fine of 300 Livres for every Person whom they shall entertain without giving in his Name to the Bailif of the Place. Every Village is to keep a Sentinel in their Steeple to give the Alarm upon any appearance of the Enemy: and another Sentinel is to stand arm'd at the Entrance into every Village. A Reward of 20 Rixdollars is allow'd for taking an Enemy, and 10 for a Deforter. And the Widows and Children of those that are kill'd in the Publick Service will be provided for, suitably to their Condition.

From the Amsterdam Courant, Dated Oct. 5.

Madrid, Sept. 16. The standing Forces of this Kingdom are drawing towards Andalusia, to join the Nobles and Militia of that Province. Seven Men of War, with several Transport Ships are detach'd from the Enemy's Fleet before Cadiz, to the Streights, to buy Horses (as we suppose) in Barbary. 'Tis reported here, that for the better Defence of Cadiz 4 Vessels are sunk in the Mouth of the Haven betwixt the Puntals, where there is but just room left for 3 Ships to pass in Front, which narrow Entrance is defended by the French and Spanish Men of War and Gallies that lie within the Puntals. They write from Barcelona that all the Cannon is drawn out of their Arsenal, and planted upon the Mole and the Bulwarks.
